Mr. Stefan Staninowski

Dear Mr. Staninowski:

On behalf of Mr. Dulles, I am replying to your letter that you wrote to him describing your experiences in Germany during the past three years.

At this distance, on the basis of your letter, it is impossible to arrive at any decision concerning the statements you made or their implication. I am, therefore, referring your letter to the Department of State with full confidence that one of their officers will contact you in the near future.

Sincerely,

Signed

Assistant to the Director
